

Baptist Church Members Are Treated to Musical Festival

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

Last Wednesday evening, the local Baptist church was treated to a musical festival by their choir. Twelve members of the choir presented a program which was inspirational to the good-sized crowd which came to hear them. The program began with a choir number with trumpet obligato. The piece was "God of Our Fathers," and the trumpeters were Jan Stanley and Dennis Harvey. Mrs. Jerry Richards then did a soprano solo, "How Great Thou Art."

marks made by Pastor Hustad. Jack Crowel was the pianist. "Over-Shadowed," a soprano solo, was next sung by Mrs. Jack Schneider. An excellent quartet of Mrs. Charles Voper, Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mrs. Eugene Furlong, and Mrs. Russell Furlong rendered "He's the One I Love." "Holy, Holy, Is What the Angels Sang" was a solo done by Norman Goodrich. A duet of Mrs. Jack Schneider and Mrs. Richards then sang "Are You Living Where God Answers Prayer." The choir then concluded the program with "Wonderful Grace of Jesus." Director of the choir is Norman Goodrich, accompanist is Mrs. Maurine Gibson.

A brand new Walteria resident is Paul Scott McKinney, who was born on Sept. 18 to proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKinney, of Newton St. Little Paul tipped the scales at 7 lbs., 13 1/2 oz., and measured 21 1/2 inches. He is the second tax deduction for the McKinneys, joining three-year-old brother Dean in the family home. Very happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vayo of Walteria.

Business Women's Club held regular meeting on Tuesday. The J.F.F. Club held its Sept. 18, at the home of their newly-elected president, Mrs. Helen Conze, of Ocean St. Nine members came to enjoy an active meeting of business and pleasure combined. Mrs. Nettie Phillips took charge of the fun for the evening after the ladies held their business meeting. Mrs. Lorine Harline walked off with first prize, and Mrs. Helen Conze was lucky winner of the second. Mrs. John Minor was happy recipient of the raffle prize—a lovely set of tea towels. Cream puffs and coffee served by the hostess put an end to the pleasant gathering. The next meeting of the club will be a Halloween party at the Park St. home of Mrs. Eva Kelly.

Jack Webb Now Up and Around After Long Bout With Polio

By EM FRENCH
FR 5-1390

Someone is always asking me, "Have you seen Mary Webb? How is Jack?" So I tracked Mary down and she told me that the worst is behind them and that things look pretty fine from here on in. Jack, as almost all of you know, contracted polio around Thanksgiving last year. He's been in the hospital in Santa Monica since then, except for week ends, when Mary brings him home. Jack is up on crutches now, looks wonderful, and has never lost his cheerful attitude. He is president of the California Rehabilitation Club at the hospital, and instead of feeling sorry for himself, as a lot of us would do, he spends the day listening to other patients' woes.

The bride is a graduate of El Camino and the groom is a graduate of Lyons Township Junior College, in LaGrange. They are honeymooning around California, and will then drive back to Chicago, to their apartment on the University of Chicago campus, where Ed will continue his schooling.

Zelpha Elizabeth Goff, of Redondo Beach, and Nowell Alan Riner, of Hollywood-Riviera, were joined in marriage, by Father John McKenna, at St. James Church, Saturday, Sept. 22. A reception for 80 guests was held at Iron's Cottage following the ceremony, and then the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight S. Riner, Jr., entertained the family and close friends at a buffet in their home, at 133 Paseo De Granada. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. E. Mooney, of Redondo Beach, was dressed in white satin and carried a white fan with orchids. The matron of honor, Mrs. Charles Niemoeller, and the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Hutchenson, were in blue and carried silver fans with blue chrysanthemums. Mrs. Riner wore champagne lace with a champagne feather hat.

The best man was the groom's brother, Orman Riner, and the ring bearer was another brother, Stephen Nowell, who was graduated from Junipera Serra High School, in Gardena, and Betty, who attended high school in Cottonwood, Ala., are honeymooning in Escondido, Del Mar and the San Jacinto mountains. Nowell is employed by Pacific Telephone, out of Inglewood office, and Betty works for the Western Airlines. They will live in Hermosa Beach.

Every fall the Metamora of the Church of Religious Science sponsor a Retreat at Idyllwild. There are inspiring sunrise services and hilarious evening campfire songsters. In between there are serious workshops, conducted by outstanding leaders in many varied fields. Last week end Marybeth Hornbeck, in her capacity as director of the recorded learning workshop, gave a very popular workshop on sleep learning, two phases of a field in which her research has received international recognition.

Three dates to remember—Torrance Hi PTA Pot Luck supper at the high school, Oct. 2; Riviera PTA Ice Cream Social at El Retiro Park, Oct. 7; and Las Vecinas p.a.n.c.a.k.e breakfast at El Retiro, Oct. 21.

Commercial Autos Need Quarterly Registration
Owners of commercial vehicles were reminded today by State Motor Vehicles Director Paul Mason that application for last-quarter registration renewal must be made on or before Oct. 5.

Home Owners
About 58 per cent of America's millions of households today are home-owned, as compared with only about 44 per cent of owners as late as 1940.
